

Amanda Silverstein

Amanda Silverstein is from Weston, Florida and grew up attending Temple Dor Dorim. Amanda graduated from Florida State University in 2017 with a Bachelor of Science in Accounting and with her Master of Accounting in Taxation in 2018. After graduating, Amanda moved back to South Florida and quickly became involved in Jewish Federation of Broward County. She engaged with Federation initially through the Horizons program a few years ago. After graduating from Horizons, she volunteered for more responsibility within the Young Leadership Division (YLD) and became the Mitzvah Chair and later the Jewish Identity Chair. Amanda also sits on the Jewish Engagement and Education Impact Team. Today, Amanda co-chairs the YLD Broward County board and participates in the overall Federation Board as well. Amanda and her husband, Adam, currently reside in Fort Lauderdale with their mini goldendoodle, Winston.

Professionally, Amanda is a supervisor in the Advisory Services practice for Marcum, a leading national accounting firm. She specializes in complex matrimonial dissolution cases and has received training in the Collaborative Divorce process. Amanda regularly assists attorneys in the tracing of assets, determination and valuation of assets and liabilities within a marital estate, equitable distribution, business valuation, income tax issues, income determination of the parties and calculation of alimony and child support. Amanda has participated in numerous marital dissolution mediations and regularly acts as a neutral accountant in divorce cases. Amanda holds a CPA license and is currently studying to obtain her Certified Financial Forensics credential.
