

Michael Zager

Michael Zager, Founder and CEO of Z Wealth Solutions, provides customized insurance and financial planning services, drawing from his more than three decades of experience to help his clients define, then achieve their financial goals. Michael understands the unique challenges and opportunities facing high net worth individuals and works with each client to apply tailored solutions from disability income and life insurance to complex succession and estate planning strategies.

Michael Zager has been recognized by Forbes as a Top Financial Security Professional each year since the Forbes|SHOOK Top Financial Security Professionals list's inauguration in 2021. Michael has also been named a Chairman's Club member a record 21 times (1999-2012, 2014-2017 & 2019-2021) by Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (MassMutual), an honor reserved for the top 10 financial professionals nationwide. He was also awarded Advisor of the Year in 2013, 2018, 2022 and 2023, MassMutual's most prestigious honor.

Upon graduating with a degree in Finance from Boston University in 1991, Michael entered the world of insurance and embraced running his own business. Located in South Florida, and serving a national client base, Z Wealth Solutions is a boutique financial services firm with a focus on delivering unparalleled service that is personal and responsive. Clients include professional athletes, corporate executives, and entrepreneurs, as well as professionals in the private equity, finance, and real estate sectors. Michael also advises institutional clients in the areas of executive benefits and compensation.

In addition to being passionate about serving his clients, Michael is dedicated to giving back to his community. He has established a scholarship at the University School of Nova Southeastern University, a private preparatory school he attended, and has been a longstanding supporter of the Jewish Federation of Broward County, the Jason Taylor Foundation, Feeding South Florida, and the United Way. Michael is a trustee of Nova Southeastern University, and previously served as Board Chair of the University School. Now, an empty nester, Michael enjoys traveling with his wife Lainie, and cherishes the opportunity to spend quality time with her and their three sons.
