

Stacey Schulman

Stacey Schulman is a native Floridian. Born and raised in Plantation, Florida, she graduated from Nova High School. Judge Schulman attended college at Cornell University in New York and graduated in the top 10% of her class. After Cornell, Judge Schulman came back down to Florida where she attended the University of Miami School of Law, graduating first in her law school class.

Upon her graduation from law school, Judge Schulman worked for the State Attorney's Office here in Broward as an Assistant State Attorney. Judge Schulman spent 9 years. After her work as a prosecutor, Judge Schulman spent 3 1/2 years practicing civil law including employment litigation as well as civil litigation.

On August 26, 2014, Stacey Schulman became Judge Schulman after being elected by the voters of Broward County to the Circuit Court bench. She currently sits in our Dependency Courts trying to help families and children dealing with allegations of abandonment, abuse and neglect. Judge Schulman is the Chairperson of the Dependency division In Broward, and she is also a member of the faculty at Florida Judicial College, meaning she helps educate other judges about Dependency courts.

In addition to her professional work, Judge Schulman is involved in our community volunteering for organizations like Jewish Federation and the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. She loves to run and can be found many weekends doing 5ks with her family for various charities.

However, Judge Schulman says her biggest accomplishment are her sons, Brandon and Sammy.
