

JEN STARKEY

Jennifer Starkey is a Senior Vice President/Regional Vice President at TD Bank serving Broward, Southern Palm Beach, Lee, and Collier Counties in South Florida. She has over 30 years of banking experience, in the north and southeast geographies, in multiple areas of banking, 22 of which are with TD. Jennifer has managed teams in deposit operations, credit, and bank merger and acquisitions.

In her current role, Jennifer and her team of experienced Relationship Managers provide financing solutions, including working capital, start-up/acquisition, equipment leasing, mortgages, and lines of credit; whether conventional or SBA.

Jennifer co-leads TD Bank's Women at TD group in Florida, mentors participants in the Career Relaunch program, and is part of L.E.A.D., an initiative supporting emerging women leaders. She actively serves her community as a board member for Junior Achievement of South Florida and the Fort Lauderdale Alliance, and as a facilitator for the Levan Center of Innovation's Ideate Program. She is a member of the United Way of Broward County Tocqueville Society and has served on boards for the American Red Cross and March of Dimes. Jennifer was recently honored with the Susan Levan Woman of Inspiration Award.

Jennifer holds a bachelor's degree from Rutgers University and has completed advanced training in business, finance, and accounting. She resides in South Florida with her husband and daughter.
