

Kid, Tween & Teen Programs

For more than 80 years, the Jewish Federation of Broward County has offered programs for children, tweens, and teens that connect them to each other, Jewish life, and leadership skills to benefit our Jewish community, Israel, and the world around us. Whether they want to make a unique difference in our community, experience a once-in-a-lifetime travel experience, or meet new people, the Federation is committed to assisting in developing the Jewish identities of our Broward children.

Shalom Baby

Shalom Baby is an outreach initiative designed to welcome Jewish babies and their families to the Jewish community in Broward County. Synagogues, vendors, and agencies that cater to our community extend a hand of friendship to families who have recently experienced the birth or adoption of a child. For more information, please contact MTokar@JewishBroward.org.

PJ Library®

PJ Library is a national program that sends Jewish children's books free of charge to families across the world every month. In-person and online events encourage PJ families to celebrate together and form friendships. Families raising kids from birth to nine years old with Judaism as part of their lives are welcome to register. For more information, please contact PJLibrary@JewishBroward.org.

PJ Our Way®

PJ Our Way (PJOW) is the next chapter of PJ Library for tweens ages 9-12. Every month, participants visit the PJOW website to choose a book from a selection of titles. They are then invited to submit reviews and videos about the books they read, take polls and quizzes, and more. For more information, please contact PJLibrary@jewishbroward.org.
