

Katie Gilden, CPA/ABV/CFF, CFE, CVA

Partner, Fiske Advisory

Katie Gilden, Partner and Chief Operating Officer, has been with Fiske since 2009 and oversees daily operations and is responsible for overall staff management.

She leads the firm's Business Valuation practice – performing business valuations for estate/gift tax, buy/sell, and shareholder disputes. She is also integrally involved with our Forensic Accounting and Litigation Service engagements, serving as a testifying expert in complex financial matters related, but not limited to, civil litigation cases and fraud investigations.

Katie provides Litigation Support and Forensic Accounting Services related to Economic Damages, Shareholder Disputes, Lost Profits, Business Interruption Claims, Breach of Contract, Marital Disputes, Patent Infringement, Professional Negligence and Eminent Domain. In addition, Katie provides forensic accounting services to court-appointed fiduciaries, including Trustees, Receivers, Debtors-in-possession and Assignees for the Benefit of Creditors.

When Katie is not deep in forensic accounting and valuation matters, she is cheering on her alma mater, University of Miami, with her husband and three children.
