

CINDY ARENBERG SELTZER

Cindy Arenberg Seltzer has played a pivotal role as the inaugural President/CEO of the Children's Services Council of Broward County since the voters authorized it in September 2000 and reauthorized it in 2014.

Her leadership has been instrumental in shaping the organization's mission and guiding its development toward substantially impacting the lives of children and families. Her efforts have been focused on supporting and overseeing proven programs delivered by nearly 200 provider agencies. Her focus is to ensure that the initiatives have a tangible positive effect on children's lives and to uphold transparency and accountability to the taxpayers of Broward County.

When she is not working, Ms. Arenberg Seltzer is an active member of the Board of Congregation Kol Tikvah in Parkland where she also serves as Co-President of the Sisterhood. As a lay leader with the Jewish Federation of Broward as a Lion of Judah, a member of the Jewish Community Relations Council, an inaugural member of the Alcee Hastings Black - Jewish Alliance, and Chair of the Federation's Ignite Broward Stronger Together Task Force.

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer has a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from the University of California, Irvine; a law degree from Georgetown University Law Center; and a Master's in Public Administration from Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government. She holds leadership positions on several community boards, including the Broward Reads Coalition, the Early Learning Coalition, the Broward Behavioral Health Coalition, the Coordinating Council of Broward and the Children and Families Leadership Association. She also hosts the local television show "Future First: Focus on Broward's Children," which airs on BECON TV.

When not out in the community collaborating or fundraising on behalf of children and the Jewish community, she can be found at home enjoying her newly empty nest with her husband and enjoying her new pastime of playing Mahjong.
